

Privacy Statement

At JCMA Consulting we are committed to ensuring your privacy is safeguarded.

The extent and type of information we receive from you on our website depends on the information you provide to us through our contact mailboxes on our site.

This information helps us provide you with the best possible service and relevant responses regarding relevant JCMA Consulting services.

JCMA Consulting is dedicated to protecting personal information and will make every reasonable effort to handle collected information appropriately. All information collected, as well as related requests, will be handled as carefully and efficiently as possible.

If you need assistance in updating the information you have provided to JCMA Consulting or you have questions or comments about our administration of your personal information, please contact JCMA Consulting