

White Papers.

Background -

The white papers produced by JCMA Consulting have undergone review by a panel drawn from range of commercial backgrounds. All reviewers hold senior positions in their field and have different areas of expertise. In this way, the review process covers the broadest possible audience and provides invaluable feedback for the author.

To view the Peer Review Process click here

White paper 1 - Client Engagement & Project lifecycle

Context - This white paper provides a high-level insight into the scale of what needs to be considered and addressed in producing a successful approach and execution within any project or consulting engagement.

The first of the CMAA consulting needs is assist your organisation understand the project